RISK AWARENESS

Participation in any athletic activity will likely involve injury of some type to either yourself or a fellow student athlete. Such injury can include direct physical and possibly crippling injury to one's body or the possibility of emotional injury experienced as a result of witnessing or actually inflicting injury to another. The severity of such injury can range from minor cuts, scrapes or muscle strains to catastrophic injury, such as complete paralysis or even death. Such injury can impair one's general physical and mental health and hinder one's future ability to earn a living, engage in other business, social and recreational activities, and generally to enjoy life.

MEDICAL INFORMATION

Do you give permission for this student to take a physical examination from a school-selected physician?
Yes ___ No ___

Do you give your permission for a doctor to administer treatment to your child and to inform school officials the nature of the injury? Yes ___ No ___

It is the parent's responsibility to notify the school any time a medical problem occurs that would affect the health of the student as he/she participates in athletics.
